

6/10/2005

Client No.: C00-026

Attorney Ref.: 271376

Abstract of the Disclosure

A rectangle finder tool automatically locates rectangles in an image that correspond to substantially rectangular devices in the image. The rectangle finder tool can be used to automatically locate rectangles in an image or to generate abstract rectangular models of devices in the image. The tool determines the properties of and locates the rectangular device by searching for pairs of lines in an image at a specified orientation.

09688205-401600